

Transcode a file

If you want to manually transcode a file from one resolution to another or in different format you can use the Transcode operation from the local Actions menu of the file as shown below:

When you click the Transcode operation the following window will appear:

You can select the corresponding transcoding (transformation) template or create a new one if needed.

Transcoding progress is shown at the right:

All Videos / Last modified by administrator on 11/16/2024, 8:07:17 PM

🔒 🗑️ 🔗 📄 ⋮

Transcoding Progress ▼

Processing: SampleVideo_1280x720_30mb.mp4
(transcode:transcodeParameters=mp4-h264-3000000-copy-0-0-0-false-----;)

Transformations ▼

No results

Properties ▼

Name

All ready transcodings are shown under Transformations:

All Videos / Last modified by administrator on 11/16/2024, 8:07:17 PM

🔒 🗑️ 🔗 📄 ⋮

Transformations ▼

- transcode_SampleVideo_1280x720_30m... ⋮
2.73 MB audio/mpeg
- transcode_SampleVideo_1280x720_30m... ⋮
73.31 MB video/mp4

Properties ▼

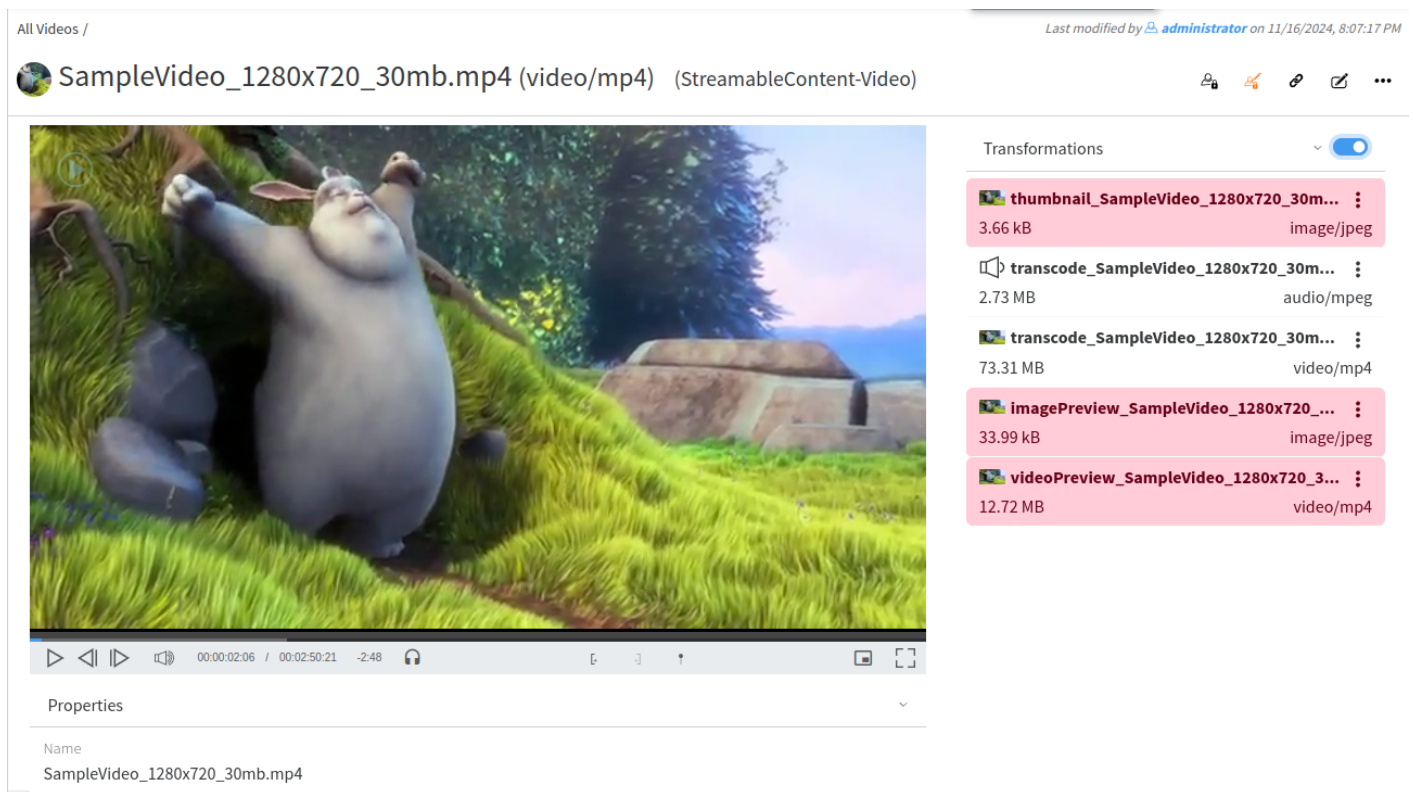

Name
SampleVideo_1280x720_30mb.mp4

Types
StreamableContent.Video () StreamableContent.Video ()

You can check "Show System Transformations" to list also the automatic transformations created by the system:

All system transformations are shown in red:

Revision #2

Created 15 November 2024 17:00:55 by Pierre

Updated 16 November 2024 18:22:53 by Pierre